ADVICE ON ALLERGENS

To comply with the new EU laws on displaying allergen information, our “Allergen Menu” is available upon request

Please note that all meats are uncooked weights and nut trace may be present in all dishes and we take every possible step to make sure GM foods are not present. We cannot make guarantees who our suppliers choose if extra support is required at short notice. However, all our ingredients are locally sourced wherever possible.

We will always do our best to serve you promptly, particularly during busy periods when demand is high but it is inevitable with freshly prepared food that there may be a cooking time of up to 40 minutes from order. We will also endeavour to assist with any special dietary requirements and as always, prior notice is helpful.
